BOARD WILL EXAMINE THE PASTOR'S MIND

Chicago, March 6.—James Morrison Darnell, the former Kenosha, Wis., preacher under indictment on charges of violating the Mann act, is to undergo an examination into his sanity. This was learned today when Darnell was kept in the federal marshal's office after an order that he be taken back to Milwaukee Saturday had been entered before a United States commission. Darnell's bond was fixed at $5,000.

The inquiry by insanity experts will be conducted by two physicians selected by Darnell's counsel and one selected by the government. Darnell said today he hoped after the conclusion of the Milwaukee trial to go to Europe and join the Red Cross.

Dr. Pittinger of Methodist Church Delivers Forceful Lecture

Rev. Pittinger of the First Methodist church, gave a splendid address to a large Sunday night congregation, on the subject, "What Guthrie Needs." It was a strong, clear, forceful appeal to the citizens of Guthrie to make the most of their present opportunity and cast unavailing regrets behind. Forget you ever had the capital! was one of his first earnest pleas. "There are certain manufactures that would do well here; and others that would prove unprofitable." His practical suggestions marked him as a man of affairs as well as a good preacher of the Gospel. His Gospel for the people of Guthrie was apparently a suggestion for them to secure and keep health, wealth and culture as progressive measures added to the essential of a moral town. He had been in many places but had seen none where there was as little drunkenness and disorderliness. The water supply must be pure and abundant to conserve public health; factories that do not require cheap fuel or gas; and our educational institutions and cultural societies, he commended the efforts of the City Federation and Young Men's Booster club, Chamber of Commerce and all other organizations that are working along lines for civic advancement. Most of the problems to be solved are the self-same problems that confront every municipality whether commission or aldermanic. The main proposition was to keep up spirit, and use all the reserve force in one supreme united effort. His

Illustrations for public accord were good.

The old-fashioned barn-raising of his boyhood was a good example of scores of men making a mighty lift of the first barn-side where all men were as one to lift and hold up in the one great raise; and another, a perfect sight was the 800 soldiers marching as in one great step and the perfect of guns or bayonets; and then showing the inharmonious picture when one or more were out of line. The address was able and heartening, dignified and tactful, and he revealed that he was a practical man who had been educated in the school of hard knocks, had been in towns through adversity and that he, had been a man who had done things himself, and who knew every obstacle to be overcome and how hard the problems were of solution, but that he had done his share in town-building and town-building, no one would question. His sermon was such as would calm the fears of the weak and doubting citizen, but it was an iron tonic to the people who are the burden-bearers of the social and financial as well as the educational and cultural problems of Guthrie.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

The writer once heard her relate a visit to a city in a near-by state. The club ladies introduced themselves to her supposed approval and administration by informing her their was the most exclusive club in town that their annual dues were $0 and so, and their banquets were the envy of all other club ladies and then Mrs. Decker went on to say they waded through mire and unjayed streets to get to their place of club meeting. She said she thought, "you poor 'pusillanous' creatures, but when the club began its program on art of the Renaissance, it classical and literary allusions to Shakespeare, Browning and Tennyson, and to a finished product of a study of Dante, she said Dante died over 600 years ago. The modern club women ought to live in the here and now. Today the most accomplished and studious of club women still write better papers than ever before because they vitalize them with a heart sympathy and invest them with human interest and every paper on literature and art is a contribution made to public welfare. The modern club woman is behind the times if she ignores local cleanliness. Why should any club woman not participate in the annual municipal house-cleaning.

BEWARE OF THE DREAD BAG WORM

States are interested in municipal house cleaning. As Jane Addams puts it, a town needs city mothers as well as city fathers. The chief function of club organizations is to create civic pride, public sentiment that eliminates selfish individualism and that civic laxity, untidiness, ugly, unsanitary surroundings, unsightly buildings, the tin can nuisance, the unspeakable condition of stables and barn yard filth, the pestilential breeding places of the deadly diseases, that menace life and health of the tender child and bodily vigor of adult lives.

The late Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, 3c brainiest president the general federation ever had buried her ashes at the club or club women was too "exclusive" or too literary to interest herself in promoting civic betterment.

SIGHT GIVEN TO GIRL AFTER LIFE DARKNESS

VISION CLEARS WHEN OPTICS ARE FREED AS IF BY SNAPPING OF MEMBRANE.

Marblehead, Mass., March 8.—Nearly totally blind since her birth, Miss Maud Lincoln, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lincoln of Market Square, has been given the use of her eyes in a manner which has aroused the widest interest among physicians.

Without any warning the young woman felt a certain looseness in her right eye as if a membrane had broken. A short time later the same thing happened to the left eye and she found that she could see almost perfectly. The only difficulty she experiences is when she attempts to see by strong light, such as the sun. This pain, physicians say, will disappear when she gradually becomes accustomed to the light.

DETECTIVES START HUNT FOR $120,000 BANK LOOT

Chicago, Ill., March 8.—Search for the hiding place of a sum supposed to be $120,000, part of the loot in the $317,000 robbery of the branch bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., on September 15, 1911, was begun here today by a score of detectives as a result of the arrest yesterday of two men believed to be the ring leaders in the robbery.

The men under arrest, George Webster and John Bingham, were caught when they appeared at a private bank and attempted to change Canadian money into United States currency. They had been trailed for several months by private detectives.

Oil Well Work Resumed.

Ohio Miller reports that the Big Star Oil company has decided to resume work on the Donahoe farm 3 miles south of town. The company was holding out for the people here to raise $1500, but those who had charge of the project decided that this amount could not possibly be raised at this time and so informed Miss Gertrude Chaffie, secretary of the company, who instructed them by telephone Monday to remove the casing from the railroad to the well and start the work at once.—Mulhall Journal.
